

School for Congregational Leadership

Facilitated by Barton College

Class Location: Covenant Christian Church (Disciples of Christ), Cary, NC

Instructor: Rev. Jackie McHenry, D. Min.

Course: Spirituality

Course Overview:

Very often on the Christian journey, we assume that salvation makes us so fully accepted before God, that He (God) will be pleased with whatever we offer Him, as long as it appears to flow from good intentions. The course, "Spirituality" will explore deep, spiritual matters including an intense, biblical understanding of our Creator, examine concerns with "our doing and not our being" which obstructs spiritual formation and will offer a theological colloquy on maintenance, purpose, preservation and improvement from a personal and congregational context.

This course is open, but targets those who have a heart to venture into the costly price of spiritual maturity that will minister to the spiritually sick, weak and wounded. We invite you to join us!

Dates: 9am – 12pm (12 contact hours)

- ❖ Saturday, October 14, 2017
- ❖ Saturday, October 21, 2017
- ❖ Saturday, November 4, 2017
- ❖ Saturday, November 11, 2017

The School for Congregational Leadership in partnership with the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) in North Carolina, provides opportunities for learning to satisfy the ordination requirements as prescribed by the Commission on Ministry.

The Apprentice Track will demonstrate competency in the 16 Areas of Ministerial Practice by completing a certificate program of study of at least 250 contact hours from a Commission approved certificate program.

This course will satisfy Apprentice Track Competency Number 12 - Spiritual Development. To establish and maintain spiritual disciplines that lead to personal growth and help others develop a rich spiritual life.

This course is also recommended as a great refresher course for those who attended Lay Academy.
